FAKERY BY O3

1. GREEN ARROWS on PHOTO - 1 denote coloured Shedas, which TPLF combatants used to wear them during the rebellion years.

2. RED ARROW on PHOTO - 1 denotes a squeezed Netsela or sheet (ዝተጠግጠመ ነጹላ), which is hung from the man's neck and left shoulder.

Squeezing Netsela and storing it around the body was fashionable by all TPLF or EPLF combatants.

PHOTO - 4 below, was the image, which was shared by Aregai Hagos in the Facebook. The image is severely doctored by O3 fakery technicians.

See the brown coloured face of B. G. Kasaye and the yellow tint in PHOTO - 4.
- 2. REDUCTION OF RESOLUTION: The original high-resolution photo is deliberately degraded to low-resolution image in order to mask the crude doctoring activities on the photo.
- 3. The face of Brigadier General Kasaye Chemedha is superimposed on the face of the man in the forefront of the photo.

Conclusion

From my investigation, I conclusively declare, the man in the forefront of the photo is not Brigadier General Kasaye Chemed. The veteran highly decorated ex-Brigadier General Kasaye Chemed was never captured by EPLF in Eritrea.

Also I acknowledge, the bunch of prisoners in PHOTO - 6 are most likely TPLF POWs. It's impossible for me to determine at this time, who captured the bunch, TPLF combatants? Or in which place were they captured? Anyone with valid information about the captivity of the TPLF combatants is invited to come forward and inform our public.

The medias shared in the Facebook by various O3 and spies of Isayas are heavily doctored photos designed to misinform the Eritrean public.

All O3 scams and Isayas's spies shall be exposed.
